

Ann Snelling Gluse

Senior Vice President

Manager of Trust Asset Management

ANN'S UNIQUE BACKGROUND MAKES HER A VALUABLE ASSET TO SCBT'S WEALTH MANAGEMENT GROUP.

She combines her experience with two of the country's leading financial institutions as well as a prestigious Greenville law firm to provide leadership, vision and expertise in the Trust Asset Management Division. Ann has extensive experience in trust administration, probate and in the areas of estate, tax and wealth transfer planning.

Ann earned a BS in Finance at the University of South Carolina and a law degree from the USC School of Law. She is also a Certified Trust and Financial Advisor (CTFA). Very active in her community, Ann serves on the Executive Board of the Cultural Council of Richland and Lexington Counties, and is chair of the South Carolina Banker's Association Trust Committee. Ann is also a member of the Probate, Estate and Trust Section Committee of the SC Bar Association, a member of the Junior League of Columbia and Women in Philanthropy, and has served on the Leadership Columbia Board and the Columbia Palladium Society Board.

TRUST ASSET MANAGEMENT